Michael McCoy Wins the 2025 Championship

The Frederick L. Dold Trophy may well be heading to one of golf's most storied stages. Michael McCoy, one of just 29 men to ever captain the USA Walker Cup Team, claimed the 70th U.S. Senior Amateur Championship on Thursday at Oak Hills Country Club, defeating Greg Sanders, 3 and 2, in the 18-hole final to etch his name into history as the first player to capture both the U.S. Mid-Amateur and U.S. Senior Amateur titles.

His victory comes just days before he and a host of fellow Walker Cup alumni make their way to Cypress Point Club, in Pebble Beach, Calif., where the 50th Walker Cup Match will be contested on Sept. 6-7.

For the fifth time in six match-play rounds this week, McCoy wasted no time seizing the early edge, rolling in a birdie on the opening par 4 to go 1 up. He piled on quickly, carding a 2 at the par-3 second and then winning the third with a steady par to build a commanding 3-up lead. Sanders steadied himself with tying pars at Nos. 4 and 5 to momentarily halt the surge.

"I putted pretty solid, and again, drove it in play," said McCoy, 62, of Des Moines, Iowa. "There's a lot of little trees around here, and these trees can get in your way. I avoided those most of the week, and I didn't beat myself. I didn't just give him any holes. I made him stay in there and fight to the end. I think that was the key, just not throwing any holes away."

After struggling to flip the momentum with bogeys on Nos. 6 and 8 to fall 5 down, Sanders won his first hole of day on the par-3 ninth, rolling in a 20-footer for birdie to make the turn at 4 down. The duo halved the next two holes before Sanders hit a miraculous approach shot from the trees on the par-4 12th, winning the hole with par after McCoy missed a 5-footer to tie.

"The problem is when every hole is four paces from the edge, it's a razor's edge [margin for error]," said Sanders, 61, of Anthem, Ariz., who was playing in his fifth U.S. Senior Amateur. "It turns into a bogey quick. I actually said to myself, 'I've got to be in position to pick my spots'. Otherwise, I'm not just playing for par, but I can't make a mistake on the wrong side. You can't really put your pedal down on most of the holes. A couple of them, but not all of them."

McCoy, who captured his Mid-Am title in 2013, steadied the ship again, matching Sanders over the next three holes. On the par-4 16th, McCoy found the green with his approach, while Sanders came up short with both his second and third shots, leaving McCoy with two putts from 20 feet to win the match. After rolling his putt two feet past, Sanders conceded, and McCoy was crowned champion.

"I feel great," said McCoy, who captained the 2023 USA Walker Cup Team to victory at St. Andrews and competed on the 2015 team. "I'm so honored to win a USGA championship. I love the USGA. A lot of my golfing history has sort of been built upon their championships and trying to get to them and advance and someday win one, and I finally did, and, of course, I never dreamed I'd win another one... so it's been a dream come true."

Notable

Runner-up Greg Sanders received a silver medal as well as an exemption into the 2025 U.S. Mid-Amateur, 2026 U.S. Senior Open and 2026 U.S. Amateur. He also earns an exemption into the next three U.S. Senior Amateur Championships.

Champion Michael McCoy will be paired in next year's U.S. Senior Open at Scioto Country Club with defending champ and three-time Great Britain & Ireland Walker Cupper Padraig Harrington, who also won the 2025 British Senior Open.

Notable Walker Cup alums who have won the U.S. Senior Amateur: Gene Andrews (1970), William C. Campbell (1979, 1980), Marvin "Vinny" Giles (2009), William Hyndman III (1973, 1983), Dale Morey (1974, 1977) and Todd White (2023).

Quotable

"I got off to a great start, and I've really been in good form. I didn't think I'd beat myself today. I figured someone was going to have to play really good to beat me. I just played solid." - Michael McCoy on his feelings heading into the final match

"I love the USGA and everything it stands for and the people that work there. I'm just really honored to be the champion." - McCoy reflecting on his championship win

"I definitely will go back [to the USGA Hall of Champions] and see my name for sure. Anytime you do something for the first time, I guess, it's pretty special. I think it'll get done again. There's some good Mid-Amateurs coming behind, so somebody is going to do it. But it's good to be first, and I never really gave it much thought until this week. Pretty happy about it." - McCoy on being the first player in USGA history to win both the U.S. Mid-Amateur and U.S. Senior Amateur.

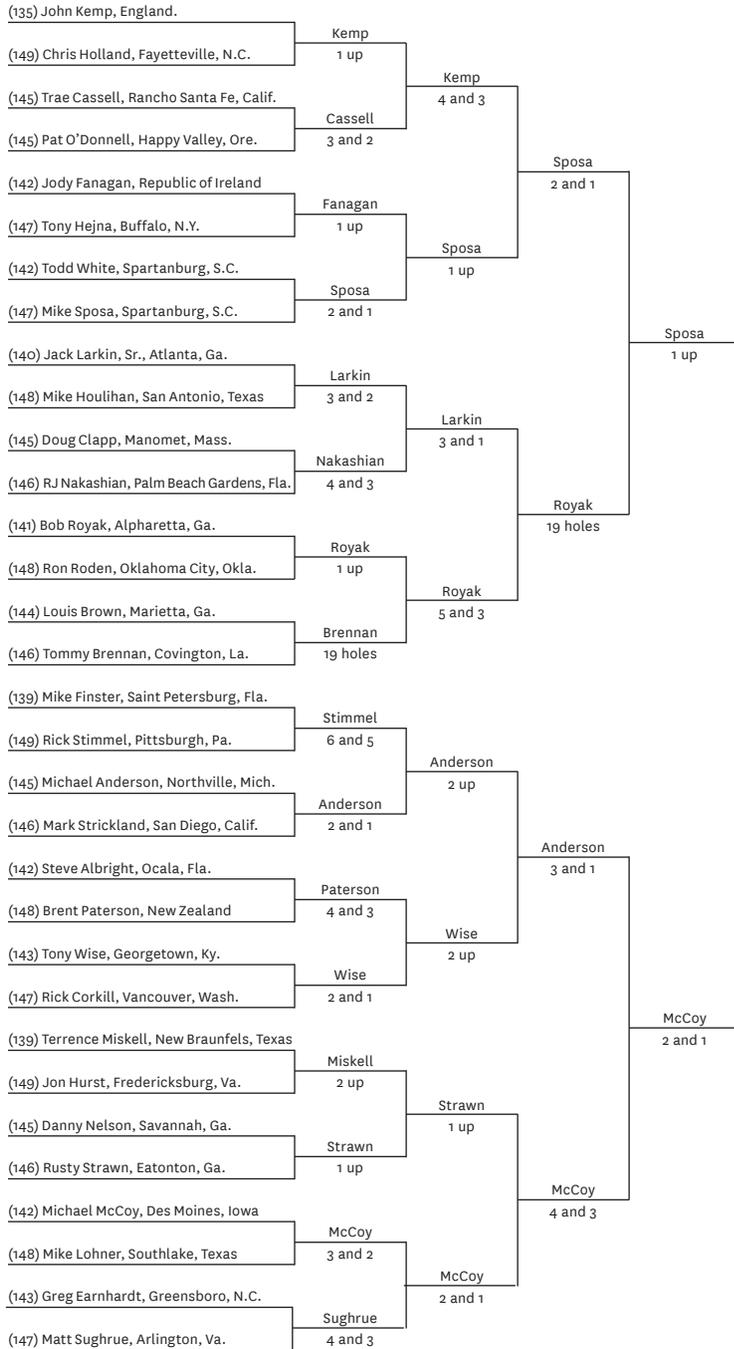

"I can tell you this: If somebody said I could transport myself into the finals of the U.S. Senior Amateur, I'd say, where do I sign up. Are you kidding me? This was a deep run for me. So I did not expect it. For sure I didn't expect it." - Greg Sanders on his runner-up finish

"I remember reading a thing like decades ago where I think it was Jerry Rice, he trained way harder [off] the football field [compared to] playing the game. The U.S. Amateur felt like that. It felt like I'm training. Like this is extreme, and anything else seems way easier. It's not that simple, but that is the analogy." - Sanders on how his experience at the U.S. Amateur prepared him for Oak Hills Country Club

"I knew I could have won. But against McCoy, you can't just be average. You've got to be really good. Of course, his start just blew me out." - Sanders on the final round

Championship History

The remarkable growth of senior golf prompted the USGA to establish the Senior Amateur Championship in 1955. Many senior golf associations had been founded on the local, state and regional levels, proving that the competitive instinct among golfers was not diminished by age.

In 1955, the notion of a tournament only for seniors was not a new one. Fifty years earlier, The Apawamis Club in Rye, N.Y., had started the oldest senior competition still in existence, which led directly to the formation of the U.S. Senior Golf Association, a private organization not linked to the USGA.

Apawamis extended invitations to golfers 60 years of age and older. When the response was not overwhelming, the age minimum was dropped to 55 to gather a representative field. Thus was the definition of a senior amateur golfer established.

The U.S. Senior Golf Association conducted a fine tournament, but membership in the organization was limited, and a long waiting list developed. Because there was no single event open to all senior amateurs, the USGA was asked to start a true national championship. The Senior Amateur was added to the schedule in 1955. Entries were open to golfers age 55 and over who had handicaps not over 10 strokes.

The addition of the U.S. Senior Amateur gave the USGA exactly twice as many championships as it had conducted before World War II, when there were just four: the Amateur, Open and Women's Amateur, started in 1895, and the Amateur Public Links (1922). From World War II until 1955, the USGA added four more: the Junior Amateur (1948), the Girls' Junior (1949), the Women's Open (1953) and the Senior Amateur (1955). The USGA now conducts 15 national championships for individuals, 10 of which are strictly for amateurs.

The first U.S. Senior Amateur at Belle Meade Country Club in Nashville, Tenn., drew 370 entries from 30 states and the District of Columbia. J. Wood Platt, 56, the eight-time Philadelphia Amateur champion, defeated George Studinger of San Francisco, 5 and 4, in the final.

In 1959, J. Clark Espie, who also won in 1957, became the Senior Amateur's first two-time champion. Lewis W. Oehmig, a record six-time finalist, is the only three-time winner (1972, 1976, 1985).

Since 1994, O. Gordon Brewer, Bill Shean Jr., Kemp Richardson and Paul Simson have won multiple titles. Richardson's father, John, won the 1987 Senior Amateur, making them the first father/son duo to win USGA championships. Brothers Stan and Louis Lee also won Senior Amateur titles in 2007 and 2011, respectively. George "Buddy" Marucci Jr., the runner-up to Tiger Woods in the 1995 U.S. Amateur, won the 2008 championship. In 2007 and 2009, Marucci captained the USA Walker Cup Teams to victory.

Senior Amateur contestants may ride in carts, a concession not allowed when the championship was first played. Traditionalists, who believed walking was vital to a valid national title, finally gave in because the championship is played in the fall, when it is difficult to obtain caddies. Carts have been allowed since 1963.

In 2020, the U.S. Senior Amateur was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Michael McCoy, a past USA Walker Cup captain and competitor, became the first player to win both the U.S. Senior Amateur and U.S. Mid-Amateur in 2025.
